Welcome to the Control4 and Dealer Employee Accommodation Program. Control4 offers products at accommodation pricing to help you become personally familiar with the benefits of a Control4 home automation system. We know you will be thrilled with the lifestyle enhancements the system will provide in your home. There are some important guidelines and procedures that you should understand prior to purchasing Control4 products under this program. We ask that you comply with all guidelines or the purchase request will be denied.

Guidelines

- This program is available to current employees of active Control4 Dealers in good standing with Control4. This offer is available June 1, 2016 – June 28, 2016.
- This offer is only valid on a product bundle that includes the following SKUs: C4-HC250-BL-1A and C4-SR250RSK-B.
- Limited to one special offer per employee.
- Orders will ship based on product availability.
- Dealer employee email address must be used for placing the order (contact your SSA if you don't have an email address from the dealership).
- The Dealer Employee Accommodation Program is subject to change at Control4's sole discretion, including but not limited to the product pricing, payment options, and eligibility. Please contact Amy Longaker (801-523-3131) for current program guidelines.
- The Employee is responsible for installing and supporting the Control4 system or arranging and paying for third-party support through an authorized Control4 Dealer. Control4 does not provide any direct product support.
- All sales are final. Payment is due at the time of order. Standard Control4 warranties apply in the event of product defects; for complete warranty information go to <http://www.control4.com/legal/warranty>. Warranty requests must be submitted to Control4 Sales Support and an RMA# must be issued prior to returning the product(s).
- The Employee agrees the products purchased under this program are for personal home use only. Unless prohibited by applicable law, Control4 reserves the right to refuse warranty requests and terminate on-line services should the product be resold. Employee sales may be audited to ensure compliance with these terms.
- Purchases must be pre-paid by credit card or certified check. Visa, Mastercard, Discover, and American Express accepted.
- Sales tax for your area will be calculated when your order is processed and added to the total charge.
- The employee is responsible for shipping and handling fees.
- Your request must be approved by your store manager and your Control4 Area Sales Manager. You agree that Control4 and its authorized retail account reserve the right to refuse this purchase request for any reason.
- You must complete the entire purchase request form and return it to your SSA via email or fax (fax: 801-523-3198).
